Saturday, 7th November 2009 13.00h

Bally Shoe Museum

Oltenerstr. 6, 5012 Schönenwerd

In the former home of C.F. Bally, we find the biggest collection of shoes from all over the world, including a tennis shoe from Roger Federer, signed by himself, the silk boots of Empress Sissi or the golden wedding sandals of Queen Elizabeth, etc.

We meet in front of the entrance at 13.00h. The guided tour will be in English, lasting about 1 ½ hours and is limited to 22 people. Afterwards you get a chance to visit the Bally Park or go shopping at the Bally Factory Outlet, open until 17.00h.

Cost: Members Fr. 5.- Non Members Fr. 10.-.

Please book by 1st Nov. with Heidi: Phone 056 443 26 88 or 079 283 71 86 e-mail: heidi@mislin.ch

Saturday, 14th November 2009 16.00h

Afternoon Tea - at Kurtheater Baden

Traditional English Afternoon Tea with scones, shortbread, sandwiches, tea….. followed by a

Concert with Stadtmusik Baden 17.00h

Vaughan Williams, Elgar, Gregson, Sparke ……
Conductor: Christian Noth Tuba: Marcel Schöni
Costs: Fr. 25.—
Tickets are available at the Kurtheater only.
(No presale)