

7th October, 2010 – 13th February 2011
Historisches Museum, Bern

James Cook and the Exploration of the Pacific

This exhibition is of interest for both English and Swiss, as on Cook's 3rd voyage, a Swiss painter was on board who bequeathed his collection of ethnographic artifacts to his father's home town, Bern.

Cost: 18 (AHV) or 24 Fr.-

Hire of I. Pods in English for 5 Fr.-

Opening times: Tuesday-Friday 10-20h,
Sat/Sun. 10-17h.

If anyone would like to travel by train with Penny, she will probably be visiting the exhibition on Saturday, 11th December.

Please let her know by 4th December.

Only if there are sufficient numbers, will she try to reserve a restaurant for a meal afterwards.

Tel: 056 241 13 56

e-mail: hp.maag@bluewin.ch