Kriminalmuseum Zürich

Did you know that in the 18th century the mildest death penalty in Zurich was to be drowned in the Limmat? They were a bloodthirsty lot. Come and hear more, it's quite astonishing!

You will also be brought more up to date by a display of a multitude of weapons and their history (no, Bonnie and Clyde weren't in Zurich) and will hear of some cases which may even be familiar to you and learned of the amazing creativity of some criminals.

Please note that the minimum age is 18, and that for reasons of security we have to provide a list of participants (max. 20).

This list must be submitted a month in advance, so if you wish to come along please let Brigitte know by 18th August.

We meet in front of the 'Polizeikaserne', Kasernenstrasse 29, at 16:40.
