A Trip to Sikkim

In 2008, our member Hans Maag travelled with two friends from Hamburg and India to Sikkim. Sikkim is a country between Nepal and Bhutan and had been an independent kingdom until 1975. After the king had been ousted, the Sikkim population voted to become the 22nd Indian state. Its capital is Gangtok.

Hans will show pictures of this adventure trip, by plane, train and car starting from Delhi via Khajuraho, Varanasi, Gangtok, Kalimpong, Pemyangtse, Darjeeling, Bhadoi and Jaipur. Beautiful countryside, imposing mountains like the Kangchenjunga (8586 m), the tea plantation around Darjeeling.

A short visit to the school near Bhadohi and a train trip to Jaipur.

Do join us for a meal in the Restaurant Hirschen at 18.30h
