A trip through India

Rest. Hirschen, Kirchdorf -
Cheminée Raum

In March 2011, I spent some weeks in India and, together with my friend Quamaruddin, we visited Hyderabad – Bangalore – Mysore – Kolkata – Bhadoi. Most of these towns are not visited by everyday tourists, which is a shame. There is much to see and the history of those towns is immense. Have you ever heard of Tipu Sultan the “Tiger of Mysore”?

I am not a historian but walking through these old towns gives an idea of the past.

The talk will last about an hour.

NB. We can use the Cheminee Room of the Rest. Hirschen free of charge. To show our gratitude, we will have a meal there starting at 18.00h. Please feel free to join us and phone 056 241 13 56 (Penny or Hans) which enables us to reserve a table.
